Speak Up
policy and procedure
Inalfa’s Code of Conduct contains corporate values, principles and guidelines for the way Inalfa aims to conduct itself in relation to its customers, employees, suppliers, business partners and the communities in which it operates.

Inalfa is committed to high standards of openness and integrity in its work. To maintain these standards, Inalfa encourages all employed by Inalfa, regardless of the type of contract (e.g. temporary, fixed, at will), working for Inalfa or engaged through a third party, having concerns about any contraventions of Inalfa’s Code of Conduct to come forward and to express their concerns without fear of punishment or unfair treatment.

This Speak Up Policy and procedure is developed to give guidance on how to deal with violations of Inalfa’s Code of Conduct.

Frank Löschmann
Chief Executive Officer & President IRSG
Principles

_Aim of the Policy_

The aim of the policy is:

- To provide the possibility for employees to raise concerns and to define how to handle these concerns in case it is not possible to resolve the concerns in any other way
- To enable management to be informed at an early stage about possible violations
- To reassure employees that they will be protected from punishment or unfair treatment for disclosing concerns in good faith
- To support the Company values of Transparency, Respect, Focus and One Inalfa, and to promote Inalfa’s culture of honesty and integrity

Scope of the Procedure

The scope of the procedure is to report any concerns of behaviors conflicting with the principles set out in the Inalfa’s Code of Conduct, such as:

- Discrimination of any kind
- Harassments (sexual and other types)
- Business and financial records and reports accuracy
- Prevention of fraud
- Bribery and improper payments
- Prevention of money laundering

Reporter

Everyone employed by Inalfa irrespective of the duration of the employment and any party working for or on behalf of Inalfa may report a (reasonable suspicion of) violation of the Code of Conduct.

Reporting options

_General_

As the reporting should be confidential in nature, do NOT distribute or report your concerns or opinions in a massive-distributing format, this would only jeopardize any further investigation and hinder a correct conclusion. Reporting by a massive-distribution is not appropriate and may result in disciplinary actions up to and including termination of employment contract or legal actions for those not employed by an Inalfa organization.

_Supervisor / Manager_

It may not always be clear whether a particular action falls under the principles of the Code of Conduct, in such cases, Inalfa would prefer that you report your concerns in good faith, rather than keep them to yourself. You are encouraged to discuss the matter first with your supervisor / manager. This is the fastest way to clear up any misunderstanding and also the best way to ensure a good and open working environment throughout the organization.

_Local HR Representative_

Alternatively, you can seek help from a local HR representative to define if your concerns are compliance related, and ultimately to provide you better directions to raise your concerns. The Compliance Officer will be involved if the reported activity or omission violates the Inalfa Code of Conduct.

_Compliance Officer(s) and Group Compliance Office_

If notifying your supervisor / manager or local HR representative is not reasonably possible or appropriate for whatever reason, or if you believe the response you received is not in the best interest of Inalfa or its stakeholders including yourself, you can choose to contact a local or Group Compliance Officer in person (click here for contact information). Group and each regional office have appointed one or more dedicated person(s) whom you can discuss with in person any concerns on a ‘no name’ basis or can report to a (reasonable suspicion of) contravention of the Code of Conduct.

If you believe that it is not desirable to contact or to report your concerns in person through above avenues, please e-mail to the Group Compliance Office: noncompliance@inalfa-roofsystems.nl. This e-mail address can also be used when you want to report anonymously.

Before and after reporting

You will not be expected to prove truth of the reported concerns, but you should provide as much detailed information as you can to enable the assessment and investigation of your concerns. You may find it helpful to use the Speak Up reporting template (click here) including:

- The nature of the reported concerns (e.g. financial malpractice, theft, bullying)
- Names, dates, places, witnesses and other relevant information
- Any documents that may support your report

A confirmation will be sent to you through e-mail within five working days after a report is received by the local or Group Compliance Officer in person or via e-mail. You are advised to contact the local Compliance Officer or the Group Compliance Office (click here) to follow up four weeks after you have received the confirmation.

If the case is to be investigated, the local Compliance Officer or the Group Compliance Office will inform you about the final results on the reported concerns within twelve weeks. Otherwise, you will be communicated with a new deadline of final results.

If the case is to be dismissed, you will be notified within six weeks after filing.

In case you believe that your concerns have not been handled appropriately or that an investigation has not been performed correctly, please contact the Integrity Committee at integritycommittee@inalfa-roofsystems.nl or at Inalfa Roof Systems Group, Attn: Integrity Committee, P.O. Box 505, 5800 AM VENRAY, The Netherlands.

Handling of the reported cases

Depending on the nature, urgency and potential impact of your concerns, a two-phase approach will be used to handle the concerns:

1. Initial review and inquiries - the Group Compliance Office will assess each reported case to see if it qualifies as a contravention of the Inalfa Code of Conduct and other policies. You may be approached for additional information.

2. Further review and investigation - the Integrity Committee will review the assessment from the Group Compliance Office. Cases that qualify will be further handled by the Committee. Otherwise, cases will be dismissed.

For further information, please refer to “Speak Up Internal Investigation Procedure”.

---

Speak Up | policy and procedure
Safeguarding your position

Confidentiality and Anonymity
All reports will be dealt with in a confidential manner. In case you report in person, the recipient might know your identity. If you wish to be anonymous, you should report through noncompliance@inalfa-roofsystems.nl.

The Compliance Officer or the Group Compliance Office is not allowed to disclose your identity without your permission, except in the following cases:

- If required by law or by governmental authorities
- If the report has been submitted maliciously
- In the event of an important public interest

If your identity is revealed, information will only be disclosed to those persons on a need-to-know basis.

Prevention of Punishment or Unfair Treatment
Inalfa will not tolerate punishment or unfair treatment when concerns are raised in good faith. Anyone who reports a contravention will be given protection and shall in no way be put at a disadvantage as a result of his or her report. If the reporter is punished or treated unfairly by anyone, this will result in consequences for that person.

Safeguarding the person(s) reported upon

Informing Person(s)
The person(s) subject of the reported case will be informed by the Compliance Officer or the Group Compliance Office about the reported matter as soon as possible after the case has been reported to the Integrity Committee, unless such would seriously hinder the investigation.

Privacy
Inalfa is committed to protect the privacy of the persons involved to the fullest extent possible and in accordance with applicable laws. Any personal data obtained, as part of the Speak Up procedure, will only be used for the purposes explained in this Speak Up procedure and will only be provided to those persons on a need-to-know basis.

Abuse of the speak up procedure

Inalfa encourages employees to express concerns in good faith. If upon investigation, your concerns cannot be confirmed or may not have substance, no action will be taken against you. However, the Speak Up procedure should NEVER be used for:

- Personal disputes
- Grievances related to collective bargaining agreements
- Fraudulent allegations and imprudent imputations

There are procedures for handling personal disputes and grievances. Please contact your union representative or HR representative to report a personal dispute or a grievance related to your local union collective bargaining agreement where applicable. Making a false report can result in unfavorable consequences for you (e.g. termination of the employment), and you may be held legally liable for damage and/or harassment suffered by anyone who has been affected by these false reports.

Privacy
Inalfa is committed to protect the privacy of the persons involved to the fullest extent possible and in accordance with applicable laws. Any personal data obtained, as part of the Speak Up procedure, will only be used for the purposes explained in this Speak Up procedure and will only be provided to those persons on a need-to-know basis.
Report externally

We strongly encourage you to raise concerns internally through one of the available channels, nonetheless we do not intend to withhold you from reporting to authorities when required by law. Taking a concern to an outside party (e.g. the media) can have serious implications for Inalfa, for the persons involved and possibly also for yourself (e.g. unpermitted disclosure of Inalfa’s confidential information). By speaking up internally, you give Inalfa the chance to look into the matter and take actions (if needed). In this way we can truly improve Inalfa together.

Implementation

The management team of the regions and group staff departments are to communicate the policy and procedure effectively to all employees and to organize necessary conditions where there are no obstacles for any employee to report a (reasonable suspicion of) contravention of the Code of Conduct.

The management teams will at least take the following actions:

- On a regular basis, inform all employees and any party working for or on behalf of Inalfa about the existence of the policy and procedure in the local language, including contents of the procedure, contact names, phone numbers and web/e-mail addresses
- Provide the local Compliance Officer(s) and management with proper instructions regarding the correct execution of the procedure

The Integrity Committee consists of:

- The Group Compliance Officer
- The Group Legal Officer
- Representatives of the International Management Team:
  - Group Vice President Human Resources
  - Group Vice President Business Development
  - Chief Purchasing Officer

The Integrity Committee is responsible for:

- Proper administrative procedures for reporting contraventions
- Decision making on accepting, rerouting or dismissing a reporting
- Approval of initiating an internal/external investigation and issuing an investigation report
- Yearly review of all incoming e-mails to Integrity Committee

To keep the procedures alive in the organization, communications to all employees will be repeated regularly and contact information of the local and Group Compliance Officer(s), and the Group Compliance Office will be updated at all time.

Evaluation

The Speak Up policy, procedure and its implementation will be part of the annual cycle of monitoring compliance related to the Inalfa Code of Conduct. Annually, the Integrity Committee will present a report of their activities to the Chief Executive Officer & President IRSG.
How to speak up?

If possible, first discuss with Your Supervisor/Manager

or

Approach (in person): Local HR Representative

or

Contact (in person): Local Compliance Officer

or

Contact (in person or e-mail): Group Compliance Office
noncompliance@inalfa-roofsystems.nl

Not satisfied with the outcome of the reporting, e-mail to:

Integrity Committee
integritycommittee@inalfa-roofsystems.nl